

Day of Languages

Día de los idiomas

Tag der Sprachen

Journée des langues

INTRODUCING OURSELVES

- we are 3 girls from Germany
- one of us is 13 and the other two are 14.
- we had the idea to do something for the Day of Languages in our Spanish classes

HOW HAS THE SPANISH LANGUAGE DEVELOPED?

- between the third and the first century the whole Iberian peninsula was conquered
- after the Iberian peninsula had been conquered, the Romans began to prescribe Latin as the standard language
- from the 8th to the 15th century, Spain was ruled by Arab-Muslims
- the grammar was written by Antonio de Nebrija in 1492
- the largest Spanish dictionary is called , „Diccionario de la Real Academia Española“

HOW DO YOU PRESENT YOURSELF IN DIFFERENT LANGUAGES?

- English: Hi, my name is ..., I'm ... years old
- German: Hallo, mein Name ist, Ich bin aus ..., Ich bin ... Jahre alt
- French: Bonjour, je m'appelle..., Je viens de ..., J'ai ... ans
- Italian: ciao, mi chiamo..., Vengo da ..., ho ... anni
- Filipino: hello ang pangalan ko ay..., Galing ako sa ..., ...taong gulang ako

SOURCES

- https://www.heraldik-wiki.de/wiki/Spanische Sprache
- <https://www.superprof.de/blog/spanisch-kastilisch-entwicklung/>
- <https://translate.google.com/?hl=de>
- <https://de.pons.com/text-%C3%BCbersetzung>

GOODBYE

- We hope you enjoyed our little contribution to the Day of Languages